Numb. 7150.

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, September 15. 1724.

Schaffhausen, September 3.

THE Court of Sardinia will now soon set out for Chamberry, and pass over the Mountains in order to be at Turin the 8th Instant, being the Anniversary of the raising the Siege of that Capital, which will be celebrated with great Pomp; for which Purpose more than ordinary Preparations are making. The King of Sardinia has drank the Waters of Amphion for the Space of 17 Days, and found himself so well after them, that his Majesty is resolved to send an Architect to build him a Palace there; for which Purpose he has purchased the Lands round about from the Propietors. The French Protestants in these Frontier Provinces are so terrified at the rigorous Edict lately published against them, that they endeavour to save themselves by passing thro' Mountains and Forests almost impracticable into the Country of the Swiss Cantons, notwithstanding all the Frontiers of Dauphiné are beset by the King's Troops. Some of these Refugees report, that at Dyon in Dauphiné, some Persons who dyed Protestants refusing to take the Sacraments after the Roman Way, have been dragged through the Streets. They write from Zurich, that last Week it was resolved in the Great and Lesser Senate to build a House of Correction, and that Commissaries have been appointed to chuse a fit Place for it, and to find out the necessary Funds. The French Jockies have bought up in Switzerland all the Horses fit for Dragoons and the Artillery; they have likewise carried many Thousand Head of Oxen out of our Country into Alsatia, and from thence to France, whereby the Price of an Ox is risen above 30 per Cent.

Basil, Sept. 7. The Militia of the Canton of Bern, who have been under Arms in the Country of Vaux to do Honour to the Princess of Piedmont in her Passage, are separated. The Cannoniers are likewise sent Home, having performed their Exercise. We are not without Fears lest the Roman Catholick Cantons may make some Attempt upon the Protestants in the present Conjuncture: The Emperour however seems not disposed to renew his Alliance with the first of these, nor does the King of France shew great Forwardness to renew his with the Protestants.

Dresden, Sept. 5. The Queen of Poland has been very ill for some Days, at her House of Pretsch, but she begins to be better, so that there is Hopes of her speedy Recovery. M. Seebach, a Member of the Privy Council, is gone to Thuringe; but the Count of Wersdorf, Counsellour of the King of Poland's Cabine, is returned from Warsaw to Dresden; he had immediately Access to the Prince Royal and Electoral, and to the Princess his Spouse; and his Son, who is Chamberlain in Ordinary to the King of Poland, is to go to the Court of the Great Duke of Tuscany, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary.

Ratisbon, Sept. 7 The Count de Wratislaw, Envoy of the Kingdom of Bohemia to the Emperour, arrived here the 5th to take Leave of all the other Deputies at the General Dyet of the Empire. M. Jodoici, first Envoy of Austria, came hither likewise the next Day from the Court of Vienna, and it is also said, that M. Otten, Minister of the Elector of Mentz, will be here in a few Days. On the 2d Instant in the Night, arrived here the English Minister Plenipotentiary Mr. Finch, by the Way of Ausburg. The Protestant Minister of Billegheim in the Palatinate, is gone to Vienna, to make a Collection among the Protestant Merchants there to build a Church and a School; to which the Elector Palatine has consented, on Condition that they would notify to the Regency of the Palatinate what Ministers and Schoolmasters they pretended to settle there, and what Funds they might have for their Maintenance: But the Protestant Minister has presented a Memorial to the Evangelical Body, by which he proves that those Demands are contrary to the Treaty of Munster, and to the Palatine Declaration in the Year 1705, concerning Religion.

Berlin, Sept. 9. His Prussian Majesty went last Tuesday from Wusterhausen to Potsdam, from whence he returned after a short Stay to the former Place. It is still said, that his Majesty has pardoned, by a special Act of Clemency, all the great Grenadiers at Potsdam, who were taken in the Act of Desertion, which has occasioned no small Joy among them, seeing they were of Opinion that they should all lose their Lives. There will shortly come out an Arrêt concerning the Jews, by which no more of them than such as are actually here, shall be tolerated. His Majesty has ordered a magnificent Coach to be made here for the Prince Royal, which will cost above 25000 Dollars, and they are hard at Work to have it done against a fixed Time. Colonel Marwitz, to whom the King has lately given the Regiment of Denhoff, is gone to take Possession of it.

Liege, Sept. 9. The States of this Principality have given a good round Subsidy to our Bishop and Prince, to put him in a Condition to augment his Houshold, and the Horses are bought up already for his Life-Guards that are about to be formed. They are daily making Levies here under-hand for some foreign Powers, but it is said they will soon be forbidden.

Francfort, Sept. 10. The Count de Wilde, new President of the Imperial Chamber, is still here, but it is assured that his Excellency will be be going forthwith to Wetzelar to take Poſſeſſion of that important Charge. They write from Sturgard, that on the 25th of laſt Month the Proteſtants of Louisburg laid with great Ceremony the firſt Stone of the Church which the Duke of Wirtemberg has permitted them to build. They have begun at the Palatine Court to make a Reduction of Places and Penſions, by which much Money will be ſaved for the future. People talk variouſly of the preſent State of Health the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel is now in; however, the Phyſicians give ſtill ſome Hopes of his Recovery. The Elector of Bavaria has offered to his Imperial Majeſty moſt of the Forces he has on Foot to be made uſe of in caſe of Neceſſity. The Levies for the King of Denmark are not yet begun here, becauſe the Officers have not as yet received their laſt Orders.

Mentz, Sept. 10. We have already opened the Univerſal Jubilee appointed by the Pope. The Report that was ſpread ſome time ago, as if the French were making great Preparations in Alſace, and in the three Biſhopricks of Thoul, Metz, and Verdun, is not confirmed, and conſequently there is no Ground to fear a new Rupture; though in the mean time it is ſaid, that the Elector of Bavaria has offered to ſend the greateſt Part of his Troops into the Emperour's Service in Italy, in caſe of Need.

Cologn, Sept. 12. The chief Members of the States of this Electorate are come hither. The Count de Manderſcheyd Blankenheym, Great Maſter of the Houſhold to the Elector Palatine, is returned to this Court. The Count his Brother, who is Stadtholder of the Electorate of Cologn, is likewiſe come to Bensberg, to divert himſelf with hunting for a few Days. We have Advice that they begin again to make Levies ſucceſsfully in the King of Pruſſia's Dominions; and at the Departure of the Courier it was given out, that M. Harten, Great Dean of the Cathedral Church of Wurtsburg, was elected Prince and Biſhop of that Name the 8th Current. Count Neſſelroth, Governour of the Forteſs of Reckenhauſſen is arrived at Duſſeldorp, where the intended Reform amongſt the Civil Officers of the Elector Palatine will forthwith begin. His Electoral Highneſs has ordered all the Orange Trees and other curious Plants that are in his Pleaſure Gardens at Duſſeldorp, to be tranſported to Manheim. Accordingly four large Veſſels laden with ſuch Trees paſſed the 10th Inſtant by this City for that Place; from whence ſome will infer, that his Electoral Highneſs does not deſign to go thither, notwithſtanding the Hopes the Inhabitants of Duſſeldorp ſtill have of his reſiding amongſt them.

Falmouth, Sept. 10. Came in the Hanover Packet from Liſbon; and Boſcawen Packet from Corunna: The latter brings Advice of the Eagle Packet-Boat arriving there, who had brought with her a ſmall Bark of 40 Tons, which ſhe met in the Stream, having no Perſon on board; her Lading is China, Chocolate, &c.

Deal, Sept. 11. Came in the Providence from Norway; and Dove from Boſton.

Deal, Sept. 12. This Day came in the Micajah and Philip, Williamsburg, George and Elizabeth, and James, all from Virginia; Greyhound from Liſbon; Prince Frederick from Jamaica; Clapham from Leghorn; Halifax and Duke of Cambridge, both from Scandaroon; St. Quintin from the South-Sea; and Dove from Antegoa.

Deal, Sept. 13. Came in the Hammond from Maryland; Geriſh from Barbadoes; and Chandois and Jamaica, both from Jamaica.

Graveſend, Sept. 13. Paſſed by the Abbit from Petersbourg; John's Goodwill from the ſame Place; Macarey from Rotterdam; Dolphin from Riga; and Greyhound from Liſbon.

London, September 15.

Yeſterday South-Sea Stock was 117 1 8th; 116 3 qrs. 116 7 8ths. South Sea Annuity 106 1 qr. to 106 3 8ths. Bank 132 1 qr. 132. for the Opening. India 146 1 half, to 147. African 8 3 8ths. York Buildings 7 1 qr. 7 1 half. Royal Exchange Aſſurance 54. London Aſſurance 7 7 8ths. Undrawn Lottery Tickets 13 l. 13 s. 12 l. 16 s. 13 l. 1 s.

London, September 15, 1724.

Many Hundred Citizens have already ſigned the Petition intended to be laid before the Parliament at the enſuing Seſſion, which contains an humble, plain, and neceſſary Repreſentation of thoſe Evils which threaten the Tranquility of this City, and obſtruct the Citizens in the Exerciſe of their moſt valuable Rights.

The Grievances which the Citizens therein chiefly complain of, are, Tumults and falſe Polling in the Elections at Guildhall, and ſome unwarrantable Proceedings of the late Sheriffs there; the frequent Conteſts which ariſe at Ward Elections from the diſputed Acceptation and Meaning of the Words paying Scot, the Cauſe of Unfreemens Averſion to take up their Freedom, and the Advantage which they have over the Freemen of this City, who bear the Burthen of the Magiſtracy and other expenſive Offices; and that Nonjurors and Perſons receiving Charity, are admitted to Vote.

But for a full and juſt ſtating of theſe Matters, the Petition itſelf is referred to, which lies for the ſigning of the Citizens at

Bridge's Coffee-houſe in Cornhill,
The New-England Coffee-houſe in Threadneedle-ſtreet behind the Royal Exchange, and Sam's Coffee-houſe in Ludgate-ſtreet.

By His Majeſty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury Lane, this preſent Tueſday, being the 15th of September, will be preſented a Comedy call'd, Love for Love. Valentine by Mr. Wilks, Scandal Mr. Booth, Tattle Mr. Cibber, Sir Sampſon Legend Mr. Sheppard, Foreſight Mr. Johnſon, Trapland Mr. Norris, Jeremy Mr. Oates, Ben Mr. Miller, Mrs. Frail Mrs. Porter, Angelica Mrs. Thomond, Mrs. Foreſight Mrs. Harton, Miſs Prue Miſs Lindar, the Nurſe Mrs. Willis. With Dancing by Mr. Shaw, and Mrs. Booth.

Loſt in Sherburn-Lane, behind the General Poſt-Office, laſt Wedneſday Night, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve, ſuppoſed to be taken up in the Street, being accidentally ſhut out of Doors, a ſmall Spaniel Bitch for the Lap, Liver-colour'd and White, its Noſe and Legs pretty much ſpeckled or ſpotted. If any one will bring it to the Blue-Coat Coffee-houſe in Sweetings-Alley, Cornhill, ſhall be given half a Guinea reward.

To be LETT,

An ancient and well-accuſtom'd Pot-Houſe, call'd the Hermitage Pot-Houſe, (lately belonging to Mr. John Knight, deceaſed) ſituate at the upper End of the Hermitage Dock, in Wapping, with the Utenſils thereunto belonging. The Dwelling Houſe is large and commodious, and all in good Repair. The Stock to be ſold.

To be Lett at Michaelmas next,

A Houſe ſituated near the Royal Exchange, compleatly fitted up, fit either for Merchant or Attorney. Enquire at Tom's Coffee-houſe in Cornhill.

Lately Publiſhed,

1. A Paraphraſe on the Four Evangeliſts, Wherein, for the clearer underſtanding of the ſacred Hiſtory, the whole Text and Paraphraſe are printed in ſeparate Columns over againſt each other. Together with Critical Notes on the more difficult Paſſages. Very uſeful for Families. In 2 Vols. By S. Clark, D. D. Rector of St James's Weſtminſter. The 4th Edition.

2. An Enquiry into the Cauſe and Origin of Evil: In which the principal Phenomena of Nature are explain'd, according to the true Principles of Philoſophy. Being Sermons preached at Mr. Boyle's Lecture 1719. Price 4 s.

3. An Enquiry into the Cauſe and Origin of Moral Evil. In which the preſent State and Condition of Mankind is conſidered and explained. Being Sermons preach'd at Mr. Boyle's Lecture 1720. Both by John Clark, D. D. Chaplain in Ordinary to His Majeſty.

4. Several Diſcourſes on Practical Subjects; being 51 Sermons: By the Reverend and Learned Benj. Whichcote, D. D. To which is added, the Doctor's Prayer uſed before Sermon. Examined and corrected by his own Notes, and publiſhed by John Jeffery, D. D. Archdeacon of Norwich, in 4 Vols. 8vo. The 2d Edition.

5. Sixteen Sermons on ſeveral important and practical Subjects. By John Jeffery, D. D. Archdeacon of Norwich.

6. The Acceptable Sacrifice; being Scripture Devotions, taking in the whole Book of Pſalms, with other the moſt devotional Portions of the Old and New Teſtament, adapted to the Uſes of Chriſtian Piety: With Prayers, Meditations, Thankſgivings, &c. By Wm. Tilly, D. D. Chaplain to the Earl of Abingdon. Price 3 s. 6 d.

7. The Truth of the Chriſtian Religion, in 6 Books. By Hugo Grotius, corrected and illuſtrated with Notes by M. le Clerk. Done into Engliſh by John Clark, D. D. Chaplain to His Majeſty. The 2d Edition, with Additions.

8. The Hiſtory of Joſeph, a Poem, in 6 Books. By Wm. Roſe, Rector of Claudon in Surrey.

All printed for J. Knapton, at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

LONDON, Printed by S. Gray in Amen-Corner.